1. In this section, Ruoqi began the conversation by her question about the importance of _____ in paper writing.

1 / 1 point

- ☐ tables
- ☒ references
- ☐ key words
- ☐ abstract

✔ Correct

As mentioned in the conversation, Ruoqi is curious about the importance of references in paper writing.

2. From the conversation, which of the following is NOT right?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ In the author prominent, we would highlight the name of the author followed by the year of publication of the work we are using in this case in brackets.
- ☐ There are two types of in-text citation: the author prominent and the information prominent.
- ☐ In-text citation is used to give credit to the original author or to indicate where the information comes from in your writing.
- ☒ In the information prominent, we don't explain, paraphrase, quote the information we are extracting from the author.

✔ Correct

As mentioned in the conversation, one must explain, paraphrase, quote the information we are extracting from the author or it will lead to the problem of plagiarism.

3. According to Alex, if what you cite is written in several different articles, which one should be used?

1 / 1 point

- ☒ The one published in the journal of higher quality.
- ☐ The one which is most accessible.
- ☐ The one published in the journal of higher popularity.
- ☐ The newest one.

✔ Correct

As Alex points out, one should cite the higher-quality journal if the idea is written in different articles.

4. From the conversation, which of the following is NOT a type of reporting verb?

1 / 1 point

- ☒ aggressive
- ☐ strong
- ☐ neutral
- ☐ tentative

✔ Correct

As mentioned in the conversation, we have three types of reporting verbs that we can classify: neutral, tentative and strong. Aggressive does not belong to that category.

5. Which of the following statements about a coherent text is NOT right?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ There is a clear progression of ideas throughout the text.
- ☐ Each part of the text has a topic sentence.
- ☒ There is no logic between different parts of the text.
- ☐ There is a clear thesis, which is the main idea of the text.

✓ Correct

As mentioned in the video, there should not be any logic gap between different parts of the text. The fourth statement is wrong.
